2018 Programs

Get Credit for Prior Experience

What is the PLAR and why should you apply?

- Obtain your Community Support Worker Certificate at your own pace*, with a more flexible schedule and at a lower cost.
- Have your previous disability services experience recognized.

**Students have one year to complete their program requirements.*

How Do I Qualify for the PLAR?

To qualify, you must present proof of 1200 hours of relevant work experience over the past two years. You will also need a letter of recommendation and other documents. Visit www.excelacademy.ca to find out more.

How will I be assessed?

An initial PLAR Assessment process will evaluate each student's skills and knowledge of the disability services field. After the initial assessment, an individualized learning plan will be developed. Once the student completes their learning plan, they will be awarded their Community Support Worker Certificate.

Tuition

$900 Assessment Fee (includes $125 Registration fee)

$200 Books (does not include GST on books)

$65 Admin fees

Additional Modules prices vary; please see PLAR Instructor for further details

Payment Plans available
